Goldwater Foresees Stop-China War

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 17 (AP) — Barry M. Goldwater said today that he expects to see the day when the Soviet Union and the United States will be allies in a war with Red China.

Speaking to a luncheon meeting of the Maricopa County Bar Association, the 1964 GOP presidential candidate said he thinks "Red China will eventually go through Asia, go through India and Pakistan."

Describing China as already "very strong in North Africa," Goldwater said: "Eventually, going to take, but eventually we'll find Red China dominating one-third to one-half the land mass of the world."

When that time comes, he said, the United States will again find itself allied with the Soviet Union, this time against the Red Chinese.
